

US. Treasury Department Reopens MPRA Application Comment Period through July 15

The U.S. Treasury Department has reopened the public comment period for the AFM-EPF's MPRA application for one week. The comment period was reopened today and will remain open through Wednesday, July 15.

Treasury reopened the comment period so that the Retiree Representative's comment (which was submitted to Treasury in May) can be officially entered into the public record and so that participants can have an opportunity to respond.

If you wish to submit a comment, click here to open the Regulations.gov website and click on the "Comment Now!" button. After writing your comment (or uploading it as an attachment), you may enter your name or leave it blank to remain anonymous.

As a reminder, you can click here to view the application in full.
