Sam C Shulman is Vice President and Deputy General Counsel at The Shubert Organization, Inc. In that role, Sam advises on the extremely wide range of corporate, strategic, and legal matters arising every day at Shubert—including on subjects such as theatre operations, theatrical production, labor relations, M&A activity, ticketing, marketing, real estate, tax, data security, and federal, New York State, and New York City regulatory compliance. Sam also serves as a member of the board of trustees of another set of large multiemployer plans.

Sam has worked at Shubert since 2015. Prior to working at Shubert, Sam clerked twice on the Southern District of New York and was a litigation associate at the law firm Cleary Gottlieb and a private-clients associate at the law firm Day Pitney. Sam graduated from Columbia Law School in 2010 and from Brown University in 2006. Sam is a native New Yorker.
